1. In Deliver Me, you've gathered more than fifty true stories about unplanned pregnancy and related topics like giving a child for adoption and after-abortion trauma. You've added dozens of important statistics and facts, and many helpful resources. Why did you write this book?
2. So women in an unplanned pregnancy can benefit from this book. Who else should read this book?
3. Aren't most women in unplanned pregnancies unwed teenaged girls?
4. In Deliver Me, you devote a whole chapter to men and their stories. We usually think of unplanned pregnancy as a women's issue. How are men affected?
5. You devote an entire chapter to women who have experienced abortion. Why?
6. What about women who are in unplanned pregnancies because they are victims of rape or incest?
7. How does giving a child for adoption affect a woman?
8. What about women (and men) who do not want abortion OR adoption? She wants to keep her child but can't do it alone. She needs help.
9. So what other chapters are in your book?
10. What inspired the title: Deliver Me?
11. Your own story is not included in the book. Why not?
12. Where can people learn more about Deliver Me and purchase the book?

"For you, O LORD, have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before the LORD in the land of the living." Psalm 116:8-9
